

Dear Senators and Representatives:
Please do not support any legislation which limits new technology's ability to compete with those with vested interests. We as a nation all prosper when we allow competition to flourish and let those with the best ideas to be able to grow.